- (b) Such confinement shall continue for the whole period the animal is in heat, except that the said animal may be released from confinement for intentional breeding purposes.

GENERAL PROVISIONS, Section 10

- (a) An animal who is:
 - (i) off the premises of the owner of said animal; or,
 - (ii) in an area of the municipality where said animal is not specifically permitted by this bylaw; or,
 - (iii) upon a property without the permission of the owner of said property; or,
 - (iv) not leashed in a reasonable manner or not under the direct control of the owner of said animal;shall be deemed to be at large and where such animal is found at large, it shall be deemed to be so with consent of the owner.
- (b) No owner of a dog shall permit such dog to make an unreasonable noise or in any other matter disturb the quiet of any person. For the purpose of this section 'noise' means barking, whimpering, whining, howling or any other sound made by dogs.
- (c) No owner of an animal shall allow such animal to be a nuisance.
- (d) No owner of an animal shall permit such animal to damage public or private property.
- (e) When public or private property is damaged by any animal, its owner shall be deemed to have failed or refused to comply with the requirements of section 10 (d) and may be held responsible for said damage.
- (f) The municipality shall not be responsible for any damage done by any animal to property under any circumstances.
- (g) An Officer may seize any animal which has become a nuisance, is at large or which has done damage to public or private property and may impound such animal.

DANGEROUS AND WILD ANIMALS, Section 11

 - (i) No person shall own a dangerous dog unless such dog shall be confined within a building or secure enclosure or unless such dog is securely muzzled.
 - (ii) No owner of any animal shall permit such animal to bite or injure any animal or person and where such animal has bitten another animal or person it shall be deemed to have been done with the consent of the owner.
 - (iii) Any animal that has bitten or injured any person or a controlled animal may be deemed vicious by the Animal Control Officer.
- (b) Any animal that has bitten or injured any person or a controlled animal may be seized and / or destroyed if the Animal Control Officer has determined that the animal is of a vicious temperament or a danger to public safety.

- (c) Under the provisions of subsection 11 (b), any animal that has been seized may be placed under quarantine for a period up to fourteen days at the animal shelter and the owner of the animal shall be responsible to, prior to release:
- (i) have the animal vaccinated to the satisfaction of the Animal Control Officer.
 - (ii) have a medical health officer or licensed veterinarian certify the animal to be without any communicable disease.
 - (iii) ensure that the animal, if a dog, is licensed.
- (d) Should the conditions outlined in subsection (c) not be met by the owner of the animal within sixteen days of the date of impoundment, the officer shall destroy the animal.
- (e) At the discretion of an officer, the quarantine required under this section may be within a building or other secure enclosure on the public works compound.
- (f) Where any animal has been diagnosed as being rabid, or is suspected as being rabid, and dies while under quarantine, the officer shall immediately send the head of such animal to a laboratory for pathological analysis, and he shall notify the Medical Health Officer of any known human contact, and of the diagnosis made of the animal after pathological examination.
- (g) Every animal bitten by an animal adjudged to be rabid shall forthwith be destroyed or, at the owner's option, shall be treated for rabies infection by a veterinarian.
- (h) The owner of any animal seized under this section shall pay all costs including but not limited to any fines, impoundment fees, feed and care charges as required by this bylaw and shall pay any other charges incurred as a result of the treatment of the animal under this section.
- (i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this bylaw, where an officer considers it to be in the interest of public safety to do so, he may forthwith destroy any dog running at large in contravention of this bylaw, whether or not such dog is deemed to have a vicious temperament.
- (j) Where a Justice of the Peace is satisfied that in the public interest a dangerous dog should be destroyed or otherwise disposed of, the Justice shall order the destruction of other disposition at the expense of the owner.
- (k) No person shall own a wild animal within the Village except for the purpose of exhibition in circuses, zoos or educational institutions and in accordance with such regulations as shall be established from time to time by the Village.
- (l) Under the provisions of this section
- (i) Where a Justice of the Peace is satisfied upon evidence under oath that there are reasonable and probable grounds to believe that a dangerous dog is being kept in violation of section 11 a(i) of this bylaw, he may by order authorize a peace officer to seize and impound the dog.
 - (ii) No person, whether or not he is the owner of an animal which in the determination of the Animal Control Officer should be seized, impounded or quarantined shall refuse to release an animal to the custody of the Animal Control Officer.
 - (iii) The Justice of the Peace may in his discretion impose a fine not to exceed $500.00 or 3 days imprisonment or both for any person found to be in contravention of this subsection or orders of the court.

OBSTRUCTION, Section 12

- (a) No person, whether or not he is the owner of an animal which is being, or has been, pursued or seized by an Officer shall:

- (i) interfere with, or attempt to obstruct, an officer attempting to seize, or who has seized, any animal in accordance with the provisions of this bylaw;
 - (ii) unlock or unlatch, or otherwise open, any vehicle in which animals seized for impoundment have been placed so as to allow any animal to escape therefrom;
 - (iii) remove, or attempt to remove, any animal from the possession of an Officer or any person at the time responsible for the operation or maintenance of the Animal Control Shelter, or;
 - (iv) remove or attempt to remove any animal contained in a trap installed by an officer.
 - (v) remove or attempt to remove any animal contained in an animal shelter as designated by resolution of Council or this bylaw.
- (b) When in the determination of the Officer, any person is found to be in contravention of this section, commits or and is liable to a fine up to $500. Or 30 days imprisonment, or both.

LICENSES, Section 13

- (a) No person shall own any dog unless such dog is licensed pursuant to the provisions of this bylaw.
- (i) Every owner of every dog shall obtain a dog license tag and pay a license fee in accordance with the following schedule:
- | | |
